Young men, old men, middle-aged men, take sides in this contest between orthodoxy and heterodoxy.

Ask for the old paths, walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But you follow this crusade against any part of the Bible-first of all, you will give up Genesis, which is as true as Matthew; then you will give up all the historical parts of the Bible; then after awhile you will give up the miracles; then you will find it convenient to give up the Ten Commandments; and then after awhile you will wake up in a fountainless, rockless, treeless desert swept of everlasting sirocco. If you are laughed at you can afford to be laughed at for standing by the Bible just as God has given it you and miraculously preserved it. Do not jump overboard from the stanch old Great Eastern of old-fashioned orthodoxy until there is something ready to take you up stronger than the fantastic vawl which has painted on the side "Advanced Thought," and which leaks at the prow and leaks at the sters, and has a steel pen for one and a glib tongue for the other ore, and now tips over this way and then tips over that way, until you do not know whether the passengers will land in the breakers of despair or on the sinking sand of infidelity and atheism.

I am in full sympathy with the advancements of our time, but this world will never advance a single inch beyond this old Bible. God was just as capable of dictating the truth to the prophets and apostles as He is capable of dictating the truth to these modern apostles and prophets. God has not learned any thing in a thousand years. He knew just as much when He gave the first diotation as He does now, giving the last digitation, if He is giving any dictation at all. So I will stick to the old paths. Naturally a skeptic, and preferring new things to old, I never so much as to-day felt the truth of the entire Bible, especially as I see into what spectacular imbecility men rush when they try to chop up the Scriptures with the most-axe of their own preferences; now calling upon philososhy, now calling upon the Church, now "I descended from a perfect parentage calling on God, now calling on the devil. On July 27, 1814, at seventy-two years of age, expired Isabella Graham. She was the most useful woman of her day smid the poor and sick, at the head of the orphan asylums and Magdalen asylums, and an angel of mercy in hospital and reformatory. Dr. Mason, one of the mightiest men of his day, sald at her funeral that she was mentally and spiritually the most wonderfully-endowed person he had ever met.
